Clark County Medical Society

ARTICLE I
Charter And Purpose

Name. The Clark County Medical Society, Inc. (CCMS), chartered by the Nevada State Medical Association on July 15, 1955, is the exclusive component of the Association in Clark County, Nevada.

Purpose.

A - Mission
The mission of the Society is to serve the needs of physicians, their patients and the Clark County community with responsibility and integrity.

B - Vision
The Society will:

1. Be the advocate for physicians, their patients and community health.
2. Preserve the physician/patient relationship while encouraging delivery of quality health care within the community.
3. Represent our membership in health and economic matters.
4. Serve as a resource for the provision and promotion of unbiased quality continuing medical education, particularly those member educational requirements not met elsewhere, by live or recorded programming that results in measurable improvement in competence/knowledge, performance or patient outcomes.

C – Values
The Society shall, in its activities, endeavor to promote these values.
1. Quality Care
2. Integrity
3. Respect for patients and physicians
4. Professionalism
5. Leadership
6. Unbiased Quality Continuing Medical Education

D - Goals
1. To advocate for quality health education of physicians, medical professionals and the public.
2. To identify and address common health problems.
3. To improve communication among members and the community.
4. To promote leadership and participation among members.
5. To establish and maintain strong professional networks.

E - Methods
1. The Society affects its purpose through continuing medical and public education, information and referral services, research, civic and legislative analysis, peer review and negotiations with entities having a fiduciary or regulatory relationship with the medical profession.

2. Continuing medical education consists of educational activities which serve to maintain, develop, or increase the knowledge, skills, and professional performance and relationships that a physician uses to provide services for patients, the public, or the profession. The content of continuing medical education is that body of knowledge and skills generally recognized and accepted by the profession as within the basic medical sciences, the discipline of clinical medicine, and the provision of health care to the public.

3. Continuing medical education activities shall utilize any available media or education designed to meet membership needs. There shall be ongoing evaluation and improvement of continuing medical education activities.

4. CCMS Alliance has use of the Society building. The President of the Alliance is invited to Board of Trustees meetings as an interested party and does not vote.

ARTICLE II
Membership

A - Membership
1. Every physician licensed by the Nevada Board of Medical Examiners or by the Nevada Board of Osteopathic Medicine, medical student, resident physician or physician previously licensed in a jurisdiction of the United States and now retired from practicing medicine who resides or practices in Clark County or surrounding areas without another County Society, who is in good moral and professional standing, shall be eligible for membership as further defined in the Bylaws.

2. This Society shall be the sole judge of the qualifications requisite for admission to or continuation of any category of membership in this Society.

3. Each prospective member of CCMS shall choose a primary specialty from among the American Board of Medical Specialties approved specialties or designate General Practice. Each member must demonstrate sufficient education, training, and continuing medical education to qualify for primary specialty designation. Exceptions may occur for: (1) Osteopathic physicians who document equivalent training and education under the American Osteopathic Association auspices; (2) joint MD/ dentists who document equivalent training and education under auspices of the American Dental Association; or (3) general practice physicians licensed in Nevada prior to current requirements of a progressive three year post graduate education.

4. He or she must meet all requirements established by CCMS for attainment of any class of membership.
By Laws of the Clark County Medical Society

5. All CCMS members of all classes except Honorary or Out of State members must also be Nevada State Medical Association members.

6. Any dues paid member in good standing from any County Medical Society in Nevada who moves to Clark County may transfer membership to the Society. A copy of the member’s application file must be obtained. The dues paid member transferring membership to the CCMS will not be liable for dues until the next dues period.

B - Procedure for Admission
1. Any physician who desires to become a member of this Society shall fill out and sign the application provided.

2. Each Member applicant’s name, upon receipt, shall be published in the Society newsletter for comments from the members. The credentials arm of the Society shall investigate the eligibility and qualification of the applicant. The Credentials Committee shall report to the Board of Trustees with a recommendation thereon no sooner than 30 days after the applicant’s name appears in the newsletter. Declined applicants must be notified in writing of their rejection. A waiting period of 6 months is required for reapplication of rejected applicants and a waiting period of 1 year for expelled members.

2. Any member whose license to practice medicine in the State of Nevada is revoked, surrendered, and/or suspended shall automatically thereupon cease to be a member of this Society unless the member has retired from practice and surrendered his license while not under investigation by any licensing authority or governmental agency. Renewal of membership requires written application approved by the Board of Trustees.

E - Discipline of Membership
1. Each member by applying to and being accepted into the membership of the CCMS, that member understands, agrees to, and accepts as the final judgment the determination of the CCMS Board of Trustee as to whether that member will be terminated, suspended, held in suspension, or what procedures will be followed, or how the discipline shall be proscribed, and furthermore each member by applying to and being accepted into the membership of the CCMS agrees to hold harmless any CCMS Board of Trustee member’s disciplinary action taken against said member without malice.

2. Membership in this Society shall be terminated automatically if any member’s license to practice in the State of Nevada is revoked. Membership shall also cease if dues are unpaid by the prescribed date. Any member may offer written notice of his voluntary resignation from the Society at any time during the year.

3. Adverse actions by members of this Society such as conviction of felony crimes, professional incompetence, unethical or immoral conduct shall be filed with the Ethics Grievance Committee, which, after notice and hearing as provided in these Bylaws. The Ethics Grievance Committee shall have the authority to recommend to the Board of Trustees what discipline they deem to be appropriate for said member. The Board of Trustees will have the authority to discipline said member by expulsion from membership or a lesser penalty.

4. The said disciplined member shall have the right to be represented by an attorney, and shall have the right to appeal an adverse decision made by the Board of Trustees by filing a written request for a hearing before the Board of Trustees within thirty (30) days of receipt of the adverse decision and shall have the opportunity to produce evidence of the issues identified in the Board of Trustee’s letter of censure or action. After said hearing, the Board of Trustee’s decision shall be final.

5. Any member who fails to meet the requirements for membership in this Society or fails to meet the obligation of membership imposed on him or her, including the obligation to pay dues, shall be terminated as a member, subject to the member’s right to request a hearing before the Board of Trustees, at which time the member shall have the right to present evidence to support his or her right to retain membership in this Society.

F - Resignation in Good Standing

Adopted 5/2011
By Laws of the Clark County Medical Society

"Resignation of membership in good standing" must be in writing and must be presented to the Secretary of the CCMS. A member in good standing who is free from all indebtedness to this Society against whom no charges are pending and wishing to resign, shall be permitted to do so; and the Secretary shall notify the Nevada State Medical Association. The members' records shall so note that the member resigned while in good standing. If a letter of transfer is requested, it shall be granted stating the date the member associated himself with this Society, the date of issuance of the letter, and a statement that he is in good standing and that dues are paid until a specified date. It shall be signed by the Executive Director. A letter of transfer shall not be granted any member who is in arrears for dues or against whom charges have been preferred and are still pending.

ARTICLE III
Dues and Assessments

A - Raising of Funds
Funds shall be raised by annual per capita assessment of dues upon the various classes of membership. Within each class of membership, the annual dues shall be equal and uniform, but as between classes the amount of annual dues may vary. Funds may also be raised by voluntary contributions or by special assessment or in any other manner approved by the Board of Trustees.

B - Annual Dues
1. The annual dues for each class of membership shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees at its regular May meeting. Dues shall be payable October 1st for the ensuing membership year.

2. There shall be an annual per capita levy of dues upon the membership.

3. The amount of annual dues for all classes of membership shall be determined by the Board of Trustees upon recommendation by the Treasurer.

4. There shall be no reduction or return of dues for any reason other than:
   A. Duplicate payment of dues
   B. Overpayment of dues
   C. First year dues – should an applicant be denied membership, a portion of the first years dues will be retained by CCMS as a non-refundable application fee; the balance will be refunded to the applicant.

5. A member delinquent in his/her dues may be reinstated by bringing current his/her dues for the current year. Such delinquent member shall provide updated practice history and location, licensure, board certification, any disciplinary and criminal convictions. Current contact address, telephone and fax numbers and email address shall also be provided.

C - Waiver of Dues
The Board of Trustees may, for good and sufficient reason, remit or reduce the dues, assessments and/or other fees charged against any member or applicant.

Adopted 5/2011
By Laws of the Clark County Medical Society
ARTICLE IV

E - Special Meetings. Board of Trustees - The Board of Trustees meets on call of the President or upon written request of any four members of the Board. An official summary of the Board of Trustees actions will be recorded and kept on file at the Society's headquarters, where any member in good standing may examine it. The Board of Trustees will not meet except with a minimum of two days notice.

F - Notice. Notice of the time and place of any meeting of either the General Membership or the Board of Trustees shall be given at least two days previously by written notice delivered personally or sent by mail, email, or fax to each Trustee at the address, email or fax number on file.

G - Quorum. A simple majority of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board.

H – Conference Calls. Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through the use of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all Trustees participating in such a meeting can hear one another. Participation in a meeting pursuant to this paragraph constitutes presence in person at such meeting.

I - Conduct of Meetings; Parliamentary Authority. When not in conflict with these bylaws, Roberts Rules of Order may be used by the presiding officer to guide the proceedings of any CCMS meeting.

J - Action Without Meeting Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board shall individually or collectively consent in writing including email, to such action. Such consent or consents shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the Board and shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board.

K - Removal and Resignation. Any Officer or Trustee may be removed from the board, either with or without cause, including, but not limited to non performance of duties or execution of organizational documents. Any matter of removal from the board will go before the Executive Council and the Trustee/Officer will have the opportunity to present his/her defense. The Executive Council, after discussion, will then bring a recommendation to the BOT’s next scheduled meeting for a vote. Passage will require three-fourths vote by the Board.

Any Officer or Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Society. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice or at any later time specified therein and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.
By Laws of the Clark County Medical Society

L - Vacancies.
1. A seat on the Board of Trustees shall automatically be vacant if any Officer or Trustee misses more than (four) 4 of the Board of Trustee meetings of his or her term.

2. Should a vacancy arise on the Board of Trustees (excluding the President-Elect), the President shall appoint any CCMS member as a replacement to fill the unexpired term until the next general election. If the President-elect position becomes open before the general election, the nominating committee shall select a nominee whose name shall be sent to the membership on a nomination ballot where additional nominees may be proposed by the membership. Any write-in nomination shall bear the endorsement of four members in good standing. An election for president-elect will be held no sooner than two weeks after mailing the nominating committees choice for president-elect to the membership to permit receipt of any write-in candidate nominations.

M – Administrative. The Board of Trustees may employ an Executive Director to implement the policies of the CCMS. The Executive Director, with the Board's approval, shall maintain sufficient administrative staff and consultants for this purpose.

ARTICLE V

By Laws of the Clark County Medical Society

4. Continuing Medical Education (CME) Committee The Continuing Medical Education (CME) Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Society, and the chairman shall be appointed by the President. It shall be responsible for determining the continuing medical education needs of CCMS’s membership. It shall plan, develop, promote, implement, evaluate and improve all continuing medical education activities. It shall ensure that all continuing medical education activities function in compliance with the American Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) and the Nevada State Medical Association's policies.

5. Credentials Committee The Credentials Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Society, and the chairman shall be appointed by the President. It shall faithfully and carefully investigate the personal and professional standing of all applicants for membership and report the same with recommendations to the Board of Trustees. The committee shall make no effort to secure new members, but rather shall confine its effort to careful evaluation of those applying for membership to the end that the membership in this Society may be accepted as proof of a physician's high professional character, ethical conduct, scientific training and ability. The Chairman of the Credentials Committee shall submit the report of the committee to the Board of Trustees at each of its regular meetings, either in person or by his duly appointed designee. The committee shall follow procedures contained in the Bylaws.

6. Government Affairs Committee The Government Affairs Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Society, and the chairman shall be appointed by the President. It shall monitor and respond to governmental, political activities or potential restrictions affecting the public health and provisions of medical care and the practice of medicine.

7. Internal Affairs Committee The Internal Affairs Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Society, and the chairman shall be the President-elect of the Society. The President and Treasurer of the Society shall also be members of the committee. It shall develop the annual budget of the Society and other internal policies as directed by the Board of Trustees. The Internal Affairs Committee shall have the responsibility for reviewing the organization’s Form 990 (including all pertinent Schedules) before it is filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

8. Membership Committee The Membership Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Society, and the chairman shall be appointed by the President. It shall be responsible to develop strategies to recruit and maintain membership in the Society and deal with membership matters.

9. Mini-Internship Committee The Mini-Internship Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Society, and the chairman shall be appointed by the President. It shall be responsible for formulating mini-internship programs.

10. Nominating Committee - A Nominating Committee shall be comprised of seven members. Four shall be elected from the general CCMS Membership who has served on the Board of Trustees as a voting or ex officio member within five years prior to their election. Two shall be the previous two Immediate Past Presidents of the Society. One shall be the most recent President of the Nevada State Medical Association who is also a current member of the Society. If any previous President is unable to serve, the Nominating Committee shall choose any Past President of either the NSMA or CCMS as may be indicated. Nominating Committee members shall serve for one year. The Nominating Committee chairman is appointed by the President from among those elected to it.

11. Scholarship Fund Committee The Scholarship Fund Committee shall consist of those trustees of the Scholarship Fund Society who are members of the Society and function under the bylaws of the scholarship fund.

12. Ethics Grievance Committee The Ethics/Grievance Committee shall consist of three or more members of the Society, and the chairman shall be appointed by the President. It shall be responsible for fulfilling the duties outlined in the bylaws. If a fair hearing is necessary the Ethics/Grievance Committee will follow standard procedure as outlines in the Society's Policies and Procedures.

C - Appointment of Committees Except as noted below, the President shall annually appoint, with the advice and consent of the Board of Trustees, standing committees and such other committees as are necessary to carry out the business and purposes of this Society. The President shall clearly describe the duties and functions of each committee appointee. The President shall notify the membership, through publication in the earliest possible edition of the official CCMS publication, and by any other practical means of the membership of each committee. Each committee member shall serve until his successor is appointed.

D - Appointment of Special Committees The Board of Trustees may appoint or authorize the appointment of special committees which may be reappointed from year to year if their work is of a nature to demand attention.

E - Appointed Positions The President shall appoint, as needed, the Delegate Chair (if no Delegate Chair is elected during the normal election), commissions, councils, and committees to assist the Board of Trustees. Appointments shall last only for the term of the President making the appointments. Delegates and Alternate Delegates are assigned to reference committees of the Nevada State Medical Association House by the Nevada State Medical Association President upon confirmation of their attendance. The Delegation Chairman may appoint to the House of Delegates additional delegates. The Board of Trustees shall be the final arbiter if selection of additional or alternate delegates is needed. The President may appoint a Parliamentarian.
By Laws of the Clark County Medical Society

ARTICLE VI
Officers and Duties

Officers. The officers of the Society shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Past President and Delegate Chairman. No person may hold more than one office.

President. The President assumes office immediately upon completing his or her term as President-elect or upon the inability of the presiding President to continue serving. A President who assumes office before his or her term as President-elect has been completed shall also serve the full term as President. The President is the presiding officer of the Board of Trustees and of the general membership meetings and serves as a member of the Internal Affairs Committee and the Nevada State Medical Association Council and is a delegate to the NSMA House of Delegates. The President, at his discretion, may appoint any committee he or she deems necessary during the course of his/her office term. The President fills by appointment until the next general election any elected positions made vacant for any reason, except the office of President-elect.
